EXPLORING THE SECRETS OF "MY PYRAMID"

Q: What is the only U.S.

state where cacao is grown for commercial chocolate production?

A: Hawaii is the only U.S. state where cacao can be grown commercially to make chocolate. The cacao tree requires about 80 inches of rain a year and can't tolerate temperatures below 59° F, so all the chocolate in the world comes from tropical regions. More than 35 million heart-shaped boxes of chocolate candy are sold each year for Valentine's Day.
